LOWY and CELIA ABELES. He was born 1879 in Bohemia, and died 1954 in New Jersey.

Notes for CAMILLA KOHN:

Born in Rachenitz, near Prague

Notes for OTTO LOWY:

Got dates of birth and death from NJ Biographical Index.

Came to U.S. when he was a boy. He had all his education and training here.

Apparently, in the late 1890's it was customary for children to write New Year's greetings to their parents. There was special stationery with New Year verses in Hebrew, German, and English, and space for the children to write their greetings. I found one from September 1893 with greetings to Emanuel and Celia Abeles from their children, Meyer, Leah, and Isabelle, and from their nephew, Otto. Otto wrote: "Dear Uncle and Aunt, I can't find words enough to thank you for all the good you have done to me during the passed (sic) year. You have kept me as your own son, dressed me, and did every thing to make it homelike for me.

"I can't do anything else to show my thanks than to pray to God for you. I wish He would hear my prayer and send health, luck and a long live. (sic)

"This is the wish for Rosh Hashonah (written in Hebrew) from Your loving Nephew, Otto"

He and his brother, Arthur, could read Hebrew, but Otto and Camilla were non-observant, although, they did attend high holiday services at Oheb Shalom, according to Mike Lowy.

Florette thought that he probably lived with Aunt Bertha Abeles Kohn and Uncle Sigmund Kohn, but the above New Year's letter makes it sound as if he may have lived with Emanuel and Celia Abeles.

He did not go to medical school. he worked in a doctor's office and then took and passed the medical exams. He practiced pathology.

Uncle Manny Schwarz took a dim view of his training.

Child is listed above under (35) Otto Lowy.
